

Simply Dancing Partners

Summer Term starting 24th and 30th April 2012

Dance with our fabulous team of partners at every lesson or bring your own – we have classes to suit everyone.

Ballroom and Latin

We continue to run the only classes in London where you are guaranteed to dance with a talented and patient professional partner at every lesson (unless you want to dance as a couple).

Beginners Class Social Dancing

For Men

We realise that you would like to learn quickly and master a small number of steps that will help to build your confidence so that you can ask any woman to dance with you. We will teach you some basic routines that you will be able to use in any social dance or club. We will feature: Latin dances - Salsa, Rumba, Cha Cha, Jive and Slow dances - Social Foxtrot, Waltz. You will be partnered with our team of female dancers who are there to help you learn to become a competent leader quickly.

For Couples

The same class is also ideal for couples wanting to learn together. We know that you want to spend the entire lesson with your own partner and as our single clients are partnered up with members of our dance team – we can guarantee that this will be the case.

For Women

This is a great place to start as it will give you the basics of six popular dances. You will be partnered with our team of professional dancers who are there to help you learn and ensure that you will always have someone to dance with you.

Private Lessons

You can book private one to one lessons either during the day, evening or weekends. Lessons cost £70 per person or £80 per couple. We have studio space in the West End, Kensington and various other locations so that you can choose the one closest to you. You can concentrate on any style of dancing that we teach including all the Ballroom and Latin dances, Salsa and Argentine Tango. We teach individuals and couples.

Wedding First Dance

Whether you want to step onto the dance floor and feel confident with a classic Waltz, or you have got something a bit more adventurous in mind, our expert teachers can help you choreograph and master the whole dance. After all, it is not every day you take to the dance floor with an audience so make the most of it!
